

PROPOSED REVISIONS with TRACK CHANGES

P05.10.080. Tuition and Fee Waivers.

- A. The president or designee may waive tuition or student fees when such action is determined by the president to be in the best interest of the university.
- B. Regular tuition shall be waived for Alaska residents who are otherwise age eligible to receive full social security retirement benefits, who register on a space available basis; that is, when courses can accommodate such students in addition to other enrolled students. Individuals who were eligible for senior citizen tuition waivers on September 21, 2005 under the previous regents' policy shall continue to be eligible for the waiver.
- C.

~~deceased at the time of death. The recipient must also be and remain in good academic, financial aid, and student code of conduct standing in accordance with institutional standards of the campus attended.:~~

1. establish eligibility for the waiver prior to tuition payment deadlines.
Waivers do not cover tuition or fees for non-credit courses, fees that are voluntarily incurred by the student (e.g., fines, late fees, housing, parking, insurance), fees imposed by student government, or fees unrelated to student status.
2. be enrolled as a student in good academic, financial aid, and student code of conduct standing in accordance with institutional standards of the campus attended; and
3. have been the spouse or financially interdependent partner of the officer or member of a fire department or the armed services at the time of the officer or member's death or listing as a prisoner of war or listing as missing in action; or
4. have been a dependent child at the time of the officer or member's death or listing as a prisoner of war or listing as missing in action. For purpose of this provision, "child" includes a natural or adopted child, stepchild, acknowledged illegitimate child, or child to whom the officer or member stood "in loco parentis" for at least three years before the officer or member's death or listing as a prisoner of war or listing as missing in action.
