

responsibility to the citizens of this state, its communities, and students to act promptly, in their best interests and without regard to political, geographic, or other personal considerations, to make the difficult decisions required to reduce disruption to students, and to ensure that vocational, technical, and academic standards are maintained and essential services are provided; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to AS 14.40.170 the Board of Regents, among other things, has the care, control and management of all real and personal operations, as compared expressed support for the president to explore the three structural options; and thanked Senators Bishop and Kawasaki and Representative Josephson for attendin#đ M