* 1.1. Executive Session (added)

PASSED

"The Board of Regents goes into executive session to receive legal advice and discuss matters the immediate knowledge of which clearly would have an adverse effect on the finances of the university related to the board's fiduciary duties. This motion is effective July 22, 2019."

The Board of Regents went into executive session at 9:05 a.m. and concluded an executive session at 9:45 a.m. Alaska Time in accordance with AS 44.62.310 to receive legal advice and discuss matters the immediate knowledge of services across the system; and enhancing collaboration among academic programs and student services, implementing common calendars, common general education requirements, common mathematics courses, common procurement processes, common travel system, and common Title IX training, as well as focusing on strategic initiatives essential to the State of Alaska; and

WHEREAS, the FY20 appropriation and gubernatorial veto process has resulted in a further reduction in state support in excess of $136 million, approximately 41 percent, over FY19 levels, for a reduction in base state funding since FY14 of $187 million, approximately 49% ; and

WHEREAS, the University has obligations to students already enrolled in ongoing programs pursuant to institutional accreditation standards, and existing contractual obligations to employees, educational partners, and contractors, that cannot be reduced or eliminated immediately, as well as ongoing fixed costs including special purpose facilities and debt; and

WHEREAS, the downstream effects of this reduction in state support, as well as potential reductions in state scholarship and financial aid support for students, will include reduced enrollment and tuition revenue, reduced research and contracting capacity and associated revenue, as well as reduced philanthropic giving; and the shortfall between projected expenses and projected revenue is expected to be in excess of $200 million, excluding transition and teach out costs that will be necessary to limit impacts on students; and

WHEREAS, closing UAF, or UAA and UAS combined, would not eliminate this shortfall; and

WHEREAS, the exact amount of this yo

2) This declaration affects all administrative units of the University. The University of Alaska operates as one integrated legal and financial entity, using a shared services model. No administrative unit operates independently or has the capacity to do so, and no administrative unit is legally free of the liabilities and obligations of the others. The System office, and each university, provide governance and a variety of services required by each university and the community campuses, including audit, accounting, finance, budget, payroll and benefits, legal, human resources, labor relations, o 6
