

Bridging the Gap

Workforce development is a critical part of the educational mission of the university. From community campuses to graduate schools, UA drives economic growth and innovation.

the university's FY20 operating budget

Taking Care of the Basics

- Campus safety and respect
- Competitive and fair compensation
- Facility maintenance
- Efficiency/productivity

Leading the Partnership

- K-12 dual enrollment
- Industry/Employers
- Local, state and federal agencies
- International universities and NGOs

Leading innovation and creation

- Commercialization of UA Research
- New technologies, solutions to problems
- Integrating traditional and new knowledge

Globalization

- Construction and vocational
- Teachers and health care professionals
- Engineers
- Researchers
- Student recruitment, retention and completion

Building on our competitive advantage

- Energy
- Climate change
- Indigenous studies
- Online courses/ invest in leadership