

Jan 14

Dear UA Community

A few weeks ago, I had the opportunity to meet with the President-elect, Joe Biden, and his wife, Jill, and their children. It was a wonderful experience to meet with them and to hear their perspective on the challenges facing our country and the world. I am grateful for the time we spent together and for the insights they provided. I am confident that the Biden administration will continue to work hard to address the needs of all Americans and to build a better future for our country.

We are excited about the possibility of working with the Biden administration on a number of issues that are important to our community. We will continue to monitor the situation and will be ready to support any efforts that are necessary to address the challenges we face. We are confident that the Biden administration will continue to work hard to address the needs of all Americans and to build a better future for our country.

The Biden administration has a number of priorities that are important to our community. We will continue to monitor the situation and will be ready to support any efforts that are necessary to address the challenges we face. We are confident that the Biden administration will continue to work hard to address the needs of all Americans and to build a better future for our country.

I am confident that the Biden administration will continue to work hard to address the needs of all Americans and to build a better future for our country. We are excited about the possibility of working with the Biden administration on a number of issues that are important to our community. We will continue to monitor the situation and will be ready to support any efforts that are necessary to address the challenges we face.